

IT PAYS TO ADVERTISE

Last Week We Talked About Our Famous English Cure Bacon. Results Were Orders From Eleven New Families for One and Two Pounds Each, to be Delivered Every Wednesday Until Further Orders. Get the Habit! It is a Most Healthful Winter Breakfast. Delivered Outside the City Parcel Post.

The Only Market in Norwich Selling this Famous Bacon.

SOMERS NOTICE

We, the undersigned, wish to announce to our patrons that owing to the continued advance in the cost of all materials used in carrying on Wet Wash Laundry Business we find it absolutely impossible to maintain our usual high quality of work at the old price of 50c.

Rather than reduce the quality of work, the minimum price, on and after February 12th, 1917, will be 60c for the ordinary family wash of 35 pounds. Above that to 45 pounds, 75c, dry weight.

NEW SYSTEM WET WASH
NORWICH STEAM LAUNDRY
TAFTVILLE WET WASH
ROGERS DOMESTIC LAUNDRY
EAST SIDE LAUNDRY

Entrust the Repairing of your Jewelry to us

The most delicate work one could imagine is done by us, in a manner that receives favorable comment from the most critical.

Charges reasonable.
All work guaranteed.
Clocks called for and delivered.

F. W. GULL, Jeweler

21 BROADWAY
Call Phone 799-3

Cut Glass and Silverware

FOR WEDDING GIFTS
THE WM. FRISWELL CO.
25-27 FRANKLIN ST.

Ernest E. Bullard

VIOLIN TEACHER
All String Instruments repaired
Violins sold on easy terms
For appointments address E. E. BULLARD, Bliss Place, Norwich, Conn.

Save Your Money
On Watch and Jewelry Repairing
Bring your Watches and Jewelry here for first class work at prices less than you pay elsewhere. Work guaranteed. Highest prices paid for old gold, silver, jewelry and all kinds of watches.

J. OGULNICK & CO.
32 Franklin Street, Norwich, Conn.
Phone 714-12

Saratoga Restaurant

and
QUICK LUNCH

JOHN D. METROPOLIS, Prop.
Seasonable Delicacies are found on our Bill of Fare all the year round. Those who patronize us are well nourished. Food Served Appetizingly.
Open 5 A. M. to 12 P. M.
CENTRAL BUILDING
41 BROADWAY, Norwich, Conn.

TEAM HARNESS EXPRESS HARNESS

A new line at old prices.
Some good values in FUR COATS, AUTO ROBES, HORSE BLANKETS.
Just received a carload of BUSINESS WAGONS at the right prices.

THE L. L. CHAPMAN CO.

14 Bath Street, Norwich, Conn.

Our Improved Bronchial Lozenges

will relieve Hoarseness, Loss of Voice, Coughs and all Irritation of the Throat

10c A BOX AT

DUNN'S PHARMACY

50 Main Street.

WILLIAM C. YOUNG

Successor to STEPHEN & YOUNG
CARPENTER AND BUILDER
Best work and materials at right prices.

50 Main Street.

WIGHTMAN

Good Piano Tuning, etc., Norwich, Conn. 797-25

PERSONALS

Norwich, Saturday, Feb. 10, 1917.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 6.44 this evening.

A good number of students have been at the short poultry course at Storrs.

The K. of C. whist Monday, Feb. 12, K. of C. rooms. Last one before Lent.

The Spanish submarine Isaac Peral is expected to sail from New London for New York today.

In a number of Connecticut towns members of the W. C. T. U. are to assist in preparing surgical dressings.

Friday afternoon the Farther Lights of the Central Baptist church met with Miss Mildred Smith of 16 Winchester street.

There were twenty-six busy workers at the Red Cross room Friday morning and a good number during the afternoon hours also.

A month's mind high mass of requiem for Mrs. Ann McNulty was said at St. Patrick's church Tuesday by Rev. J. H. Broderick.

Before Friday's rain, farmers had been taking advantage of the snow to get out logs and do heavy work that runs help to make easy.

The planet Mars is gradually being overtaken by the moon, which will be in conjunction the last of February and it consequently will not be visible.

Farmy Hale, treasurer of the International Silver company, with a factory at Thomaston, is seriously ill with a complication of diseases at his home in Wallingford.

Men's Men's Major Hadial Hub speak at men's meeting Sunday at 3.30 p. m. in Thayer building. Subject, "Jesus Christ, from a Lawyer's Standpoint"—adv.

Four cabcoaches in the Central Vermont railway meeting Sunday at 3.30 p. m. in Thayer building. Subject, "Jesus Christ, from a Lawyer's Standpoint"—adv.

The Groton and Stonington D. A. R. chapter has voted to ratify the act of the state recent in accepting the gift of the Jonathan Trumbull house in Lebanon, which has been given to the society.

Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the W. E. M. S. of Trinity Methodist church, the mite boxes were opened. Afterwards tea was served. The president, Mrs. F. W. Coleman, presided.

Concerning former Uncasville residents an Attawabgon correspondent writes: Mrs. J. A. Aldrich was called to Glocester, Mass., last week to care for her daughter, Mrs. John Comstock who has been ill.

At the annual meeting of the Connecticut Retail Shoe Dealers' Association at New Haven, Mr. Aldrich was elected president of the association.

A Stonington fisherman has just received a check for $145 for three barrels of lobsters, which he recently shipped to New York. A few years ago $50 would have been considered a good price for three barrels.

State Agent A. W. Buchanan, of Mansfield, at the Connecticut Board of Education was at the courthouse on Thursday as usual, to issue certificates to children who have completed the course of study.

The unwillingness of New London landlords to rent tenements to families in which there are several children was the subject of the attention of the Friendly Visitors' conference held at the Associated Charities building Thursday.

There will be no holidays for the public school on Monday next, Lincoln's Birthday or February 22, Washington's Birthday, as Supt. E. G. Graham and the school board wish to make up for so much lost time during last fall.

W. Garfield Swift, a son of Rear Admiral William Swift and grandson of the late Commodore George M. Swift, of Worcester, and Miss Gretchen M. Roff were married Thursday in Dunkirk, N. Y., by Rev. H. A. Adair.

The Holy Cross College club, of New York city, held its annual meeting Monday at the Hotel McAlpin. Among those present from Connecticut were Rev. William A. Keefe, of Plainfield and Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy, Moosup.

In the list of Americans who happen to be abroad just now and who elect to remain in Europe is Charles E. Dyer, of Worcester, nephew of Miss Alice C. Dyer, of Norwich and a frequent local visitor, who is to stay in Switzerland.

For a year and a half, 1912 to 1913, the Mystic young man, Kenneth Douglas, who was drowned on Coney Island Tuesday, was a book-keeper for Peck-McWilliams Co., Norwich, and well liked by the firm. He boarded on Church street.

Old books sold in New York Thursday included First Connecticut book of the Address sent out by the Continental Congress to the various colonies to induce them to send delegates to the national debt, Hartford, 1783; bought by George D. Smith for $61.

A Farmers' Institute under the auspices of the Farm Bureau, is to be held at the Congregational church in Union today (Saturday). County Agent O'Grady has arranged an unusually interesting program.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

PERSONALS

Norwich, Saturday, Feb. 10, 1917.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 6.44 this evening.

A good number of students have been at the short poultry course at Storrs.

The K. of C. whist Monday, Feb. 12, K. of C. rooms. Last one before Lent.

The Spanish submarine Isaac Peral is expected to sail from New London for New York today.

In a number of Connecticut towns members of the W. C. T. U. are to assist in preparing surgical dressings.

Friday afternoon the Farther Lights of the Central Baptist church met with Miss Mildred Smith of 16 Winchester street.

There were twenty-six busy workers at the Red Cross room Friday morning and a good number during the afternoon hours also.

A month's mind high mass of requiem for Mrs. Ann McNulty was said at St. Patrick's church Tuesday by Rev. J. H. Broderick.

Before Friday's rain, farmers had been taking advantage of the snow to get out logs and do heavy work that runs help to make easy.

The planet Mars is gradually being overtaken by the moon, which will be in conjunction the last of February and it consequently will not be visible.

Farmy Hale, treasurer of the International Silver company, with a factory at Thomaston, is seriously ill with a complication of diseases at his home in Wallingford.

Men's Men's Major Hadial Hub speak at men's meeting Sunday at 3.30 p. m. in Thayer building. Subject, "Jesus Christ, from a Lawyer's Standpoint"—adv.

Four cabcoaches in the Central Vermont railway meeting Sunday at 3.30 p. m. in Thayer building. Subject, "Jesus Christ, from a Lawyer's Standpoint"—adv.

The Groton and Stonington D. A. R. chapter has voted to ratify the act of the state recent in accepting the gift of the Jonathan Trumbull house in Lebanon, which has been given to the society.

Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the W. E. M. S. of Trinity Methodist church, the mite boxes were opened. Afterwards tea was served. The president, Mrs. F. W. Coleman, presided.

Concerning former Uncasville residents an Attawabgon correspondent writes: Mrs. J. A. Aldrich was called to Glocester, Mass., last week to care for her daughter, Mrs. John Comstock who has been ill.

At the annual meeting of the Connecticut Retail Shoe Dealers' Association at New Haven, Mr. Aldrich was elected president of the association.

A Stonington fisherman has just received a check for $145 for three barrels of lobsters, which he recently shipped to New York. A few years ago $50 would have been considered a good price for three barrels.

State Agent A. W. Buchanan, of Mansfield, at the Connecticut Board of Education was at the courthouse on Thursday as usual, to issue certificates to children who have completed the course of study.

The unwillingness of New London landlords to rent tenements to families in which there are several children was the subject of the attention of the Friendly Visitors' conference held at the Associated Charities building Thursday.

There will be no holidays for the public school on Monday next, Lincoln's Birthday or February 22, Washington's Birthday, as Supt. E. G. Graham and the school board wish to make up for so much lost time during last fall.

W. Garfield Swift, a son of Rear Admiral William Swift and grandson of the late Commodore George M. Swift, of Worcester, and Miss Gretchen M. Roff were married Thursday in Dunkirk, N. Y., by Rev. H. A. Adair.

The Holy Cross College club, of New York city, held its annual meeting Monday at the Hotel McAlpin. Among those present from Connecticut were Rev. William A. Keefe, of Plainfield and Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy, Moosup.

In the list of Americans who happen to be abroad just now and who elect to remain in Europe is Charles E. Dyer, of Worcester, nephew of Miss Alice C. Dyer, of Norwich and a frequent local visitor, who is to stay in Switzerland.

For a year and a half, 1912 to 1913, the Mystic young man, Kenneth Douglas, who was drowned on Coney Island Tuesday, was a book-keeper for Peck-McWilliams Co., Norwich, and well liked by the firm. He boarded on Church street.

Old books sold in New York Thursday included First Connecticut book of the Address sent out by the Continental Congress to the various colonies to induce them to send delegates to the national debt, Hartford, 1783; bought by George D. Smith for $61.

A Farmers' Institute under the auspices of the Farm Bureau, is to be held at the Congregational church in Union today (Saturday). County Agent O'Grady has arranged an unusually interesting program.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

RESOLUTIONS AGAINST TOWN HEALTH BOARD

Norwich, Saturday, Feb. 10, 1917.

VARIOUS MATTERS

Light vehicle lamps at 6.44 this evening.

A good number of students have been at the short poultry course at Storrs.

The K. of C. whist Monday, Feb. 12, K. of C. rooms. Last one before Lent.

The Spanish submarine Isaac Peral is expected to sail from New London for New York today.

In a number of Connecticut towns members of the W. C. T. U. are to assist in preparing surgical dressings.

Friday afternoon the Farther Lights of the Central Baptist church met with Miss Mildred Smith of 16 Winchester street.

There were twenty-six busy workers at the Red Cross room Friday morning and a good number during the afternoon hours also.

A month's mind high mass of requiem for Mrs. Ann McNulty was said at St. Patrick's church Tuesday by Rev. J. H. Broderick.

Before Friday's rain, farmers had been taking advantage of the snow to get out logs and do heavy work that runs help to make easy.

The planet Mars is gradually being overtaken by the moon, which will be in conjunction the last of February and it consequently will not be visible.

Farmy Hale, treasurer of the International Silver company, with a factory at Thomaston, is seriously ill with a complication of diseases at his home in Wallingford.

Men's Men's Major Hadial Hub speak at men's meeting Sunday at 3.30 p. m. in Thayer building. Subject, "Jesus Christ, from a Lawyer's Standpoint"—adv.

Four cabcoaches in the Central Vermont railway meeting Sunday at 3.30 p. m. in Thayer building. Subject, "Jesus Christ, from a Lawyer's Standpoint"—adv.

The Groton and Stonington D. A. R. chapter has voted to ratify the act of the state recent in accepting the gift of the Jonathan Trumbull house in Lebanon, which has been given to the society.

Thursday afternoon at the meeting of the W. E. M. S. of Trinity Methodist church, the mite boxes were opened. Afterwards tea was served. The president, Mrs. F. W. Coleman, presided.

Concerning former Uncasville residents an Attawabgon correspondent writes: Mrs. J. A. Aldrich was called to Glocester, Mass., last week to care for her daughter, Mrs. John Comstock who has been ill.

At the annual meeting of the Connecticut Retail Shoe Dealers' Association at New Haven, Mr. Aldrich was elected president of the association.

A Stonington fisherman has just received a check for $145 for three barrels of lobsters, which he recently shipped to New York. A few years ago $50 would have been considered a good price for three barrels.

State Agent A. W. Buchanan, of Mansfield, at the Connecticut Board of Education was at the courthouse on Thursday as usual, to issue certificates to children who have completed the course of study.

The unwillingness of New London landlords to rent tenements to families in which there are several children was the subject of the attention of the Friendly Visitors' conference held at the Associated Charities building Thursday.

There will be no holidays for the public school on Monday next, Lincoln's Birthday or February 22, Washington's Birthday, as Supt. E. G. Graham and the school board wish to make up for so much lost time during last fall.

W. Garfield Swift, a son of Rear Admiral William Swift and grandson of the late Commodore George M. Swift, of Worcester, and Miss Gretchen M. Roff were married Thursday in Dunkirk, N. Y., by Rev. H. A. Adair.

The Holy Cross College club, of New York city, held its annual meeting Monday at the Hotel McAlpin. Among those present from Connecticut were Rev. William A. Keefe, of Plainfield and Rev. Joseph E. McCarthy, Moosup.

In the list of Americans who happen to be abroad just now and who elect to remain in Europe is Charles E. Dyer, of Worcester, nephew of Miss Alice C. Dyer, of Norwich and a frequent local visitor, who is to stay in Switzerland.

For a year and a half, 1912 to 1913, the Mystic young man, Kenneth Douglas, who was drowned on Coney Island Tuesday, was a book-keeper for Peck-McWilliams Co., Norwich, and well liked by the firm. He boarded on Church street.

Old books sold in New York Thursday included First Connecticut book of the Address sent out by the Continental Congress to the various colonies to induce them to send delegates to the national debt, Hartford, 1783; bought by George D. Smith for $61.

A Farmers' Institute under the auspices of the Farm Bureau, is to be held at the Congregational church in Union today (Saturday). County Agent O'Grady has arranged an unusually interesting program.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 1916, is in progress before Judge Gardner Greene, of Norwich, in the superior court at Winsted.

Bryan Francis Mahan, Jr., son of Postmaster and Mrs. Bryan F. Mahan, New London, met with a serious accident near his home late Thursday when he slipped and fell on the hard pavement and sustained a fracture of the right leg between the knee and hip.

From Allens Point southward to the harbor the channel in the Thames river is clear of ice and there is open water over almost the whole surface of the river. North of Allens Point the river is frozen over except in the channel, which is broken open by the passage of steamer Chelsea.

An excellent roast pig dinner was enjoyed by thirty friends of Mrs. Mrs. A. J. Dawley of Wyoming, Sunday. The pig which weighed 41 pounds was raised by C. L. Kenyon. The company was composed of friends from Norwich, Conn., Bristol and Providence in addition to local guests.—Western Star.

The trial of Emory Kilmer, of Torrington, charged with manslaughter as the result of a fatal automobile accident on South Main street, Torrington, on the night of Oct. 15, 191